1860 Hendricks County Census Index (Shirley)

There were no Moneys' listed (under the spelling of M O N E Y) in Hendricks County. Sorry. But will check further for variable spellings. There are Moneys' that yet live in the Danville area.

I worked for a real estate office several years ago and we managed a property for a Maurice Money. I believe he is deceased now.

I will list here the two John Moneys' shown on this index:

This certainly isn't much but didn't have but two hours to spare today, so maybe later I can get on this checking out the cemetery files more and also the 1850 and 1860 censuses as per your request! SORRY!

The following is information I have here at home and mostly through our "County Seat Scraps". Do you belong to our society? You may even have this data??

Dear Marian,

Enclosed is my report on your Money family of Kentucky. This completes 5 hours of research. I have enclosed a statement of charges and a refund check.

I began with Green county and I found there were two Money families there with the heads of households, James Money. There was no John Money on the 1820 census in Green county and I did not believe your John to be a member of the 2nd James' household. I found the descendants listed in the book, "James Money-Kentucky Pioneer" by Harold S. Money for the first James. I decided to look elsewhere.

I found a John Money on the Kentucky 1820 Census Index in Fleming county so I searched there. I found the marriage of John Money to Lydia Tout on 21 May 1822 in Fleming county. I then searched the Fleming county tax lists beginning with 1822. The last date he appeared on the tax lists was 1833. This concurs with the date he arrived in Hendricks county, Indiana.

After this, I backed up and searched the Fleming county tax lists from the beginning of the county and included the Touts, Lydia's family. Abraham Tout, Sr. and his sons, Basil and Benjamin were there in 1798. Abraham Tout, Sr. also had another son, Abraham Jr. and a daughter Elizabeth Stuart plus two step-daughters. I have enclosed a copy of Abraham's will. However, he did not mention his son, Benjamin, in the will.

Now back to the Money family, I found a deed dated 22 May 1811 between John Fowler and Millicent his wife and the heirs of John Money deceased. In this deed, John Fowler sells to the John Money heirs a tract of land on Licking River, 102 acres. Now if you will notice on the Fleming county tax lists, several Money men appear one at a time. John appears in 1819. There was no tax book in 1818. Thomas appeared in 1814, Francis in 1828 and William in 1829. Were these the heirs of John Money of Fleming county deceased in 1811? Why wasn't John Money listed on the tax lists of Fleming county? All males 21 years of age or older were listed on the tax lists in the county of residence even if they did not own property. Who bought the property? Why weren't the heirs named in the deed. Who sold the property? It must not have been a person with the name of Money or I would have found it listed in the Deeds Index. It is highly irregular that heirs buy property, they usually sell.

O.K., I just looked in my Fleming County marriages 1798-1850 by Researchers and found the marriage of Browning, William and Elizabeth Mooney 11 Oct. 1817 (mother of your John or sister?) Also, Shields, William and Mary Mooney 19 Mar. 1811 and Scott, John and Sallie Money 17 Dec 1833. Forgive me for rambling and putting my thoughts down but this intrigues me. I suggest the Shields and Browning deeds be searched for a sale of this property.

It is possible, John Money was born in Pennsylvania and came from North Carolina to Kentucky. I have found this often in early Kentucky inhabitants. Daniel Boone was born in PA and then went to NC with his parents and on to KY. One of the James Money families in Green county could be a relative of your John but it is my belief your John was never in Green county.

I just now found in "First Census of Ky 1790" by Charles B. Heinemann:

Money, James	Fayette	5/23/1789
Money, James	Fayette	1/11/1790
Money, James	Fayette	1/11/1790
Money, John	Bourbon	3/ /1791.

Now, I just don't know. The John Money in the Fleming county deed deceased in 1811 and the John Money, Bourbon county, may be the same. If so, he could not be your John's father and your John be born in PA. Your John Money may have arrived in Fleming county in 1818/1819 by himself and the deed of the John Money heirs may not pertain to him. I do believe there is a good possibility, Francis Money, is a brother as they followed one another on the tax list of 1828.

Well, enough rambling. I guess we shouldn't be greedy. Look what we found in 5 hours. If you wish further research, please let me know. Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

P.S. I wish I could tell the lawyer who died in 1982 we found the birthplace of John T. Money.

Dear Marian,

Enclosed is my report on the Tout and Money families of Fleming county, Ky. This completes 5 hours of research. I have enclosed a statement for photocopy charges.

I believe there were two Money families in early Fleming county. John Money/Mooney, who died in 1801 (Will Book A) and Thomas Money that arrived in 1814 (1814 tax list.) Thomas was from Delaware and had a son William b. 1800, daughter Sarah b. 1794.

John Money who died in 1801 had a daughter Elizabeth b. 1801 in Ky. (Fleming county Marriages & Fleming Co., 1850 Census.) John Money's wife's name was Mary and she married William Shields in 1811. Mary Money Shields was born in Virginia in 1772 (Fleming county Marriages & Fleming County 1850 census.)

John Money died October 2, 1801 according to Will Book A. He died intestate but I found his appraisement condensation. Please go over the enclosed and see if you agree with me.

I also uncovered the Tout papers of Lyman Tout, Maitland, Florida. He gave them to the Historical Society in 1984. This gives proof of Abraham Tout's Revolutionary War service. Abraham was from Washington county, Pennsylvania. It also lists Benjamin Tout as a son of Abraham. I think you will enjoy them. Now you can pick this family up in Pennsylvania.

The Money family is another matter. There's a John Money on the Bourbon county tax lists of 3/1791 and a John Mooney of Fayette county in 3/19/1790. It might be worthwhile to search the tax lists in those two counties and the deeds of Bourbon. The court house in Fayette burned in 1803 so the deeds before that date have been destroyed.

Thank you once again.

Yours sincerely,

[There is a family story that John Money came from N.C. and had a brother who came to KY with Daniel Boone. This John Money was supposedly a Revolutionary War Soldier. There is a John Money in Bladen Co.NC with a brother James who did pioneer with Daniel Boone in KY; but this John Money was an older man who died in Bladen Co.NC. I have not yet found any proof that there is any connection between John Money of Hendricks Co. with John Money of Bladen Co. NC. I am presently investigating the John Moneys in Green Co.and Fleming Co. KY.]

Mrs. Marian O. Shirley
1007 Frederick Dr S.
Indianapolis, IN 46260-3418

Dear Marian,

Enclosed is my report on the Money families of Fleming, Bourbon, Fayette and Harrison counties, Ky. This completes 5 hours of research. I have enclosed a statement of photo-copy charges.

I searched the records of Bourbon and Fayette counties but did not uncover anything of great importance. However, the 1810 Census of Fleming Co. shows Mary Mooney with only one female under 10 in her household. This would be Elizabeth, born 1801, that married William Browning. I believe we can rule out this family from Virginia of John Money, wife, Mary.

I rechecked the Fleming Co. Tax lists for the years 1813-1821. In 1817, there are two parts for the county. The Touts live in part II & Thomas Muney lives in the other. This leads me to believe that John Money lived in the part with the Touts and Thomas in the other part. I wish there were 2 parts for 1819, 1820 & 1821. In 1821, John Mooney was in the same company as the Tout's, Wyatt Company. Did John move from one part of the county to the other? The companies were organized by where they lived. Even the widows on the tax list were assigned to a company and regiment.

Please note that there is a Deleware county in Pennsylvania. Also the history on William Money, I previously sent you has the William Money that married Mary Duley from Maryland.

I can't rule out Thomas the father of your John yet but your John appeared on the tax list for the first time in 1819 and he was listed as 21 years of age. This would make him born in 1798 if he was in Fleming county when he turned 21. I believe your John Money came to Kentucky in 1819 and he was 25 years of age. Matter of fact, Thomas Money leaves Fleming county the next year and your John did not marry Lydia Tout until 1822. I believe your John came straight from Pennsylvania in 1819. Since John was only 16 years old in 1810, we can't pick him up on the 1810 Pennsylvania Census.

I have enclosed copies of the 1820 Census, not all but ones living near Touts and John Money. I have also typed the names for the 1810 Census which gives Mary Mooney and the Touts.

Kentucky Genealogy Research
P.O. Box 190 Frankfort, KY 40602 502/839-7956

I really do not know anything else to search on the Money family but I'll keep an eye out for the name while I'm doing research for others.

Thank you once again and if I can be of further service on any family line, please let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Iris Winkler

The Sherburne Boom

[illegible] 1830 to 1844 Sherburne had a [illegible]. It attracted Dr. George Aitkin [illegible] from Lexington. It was to be a [illegible] manufacturing town, since iron [illegible] and timber were so convenient [illegible] so abundant. People from the [illegible]rounding country bought lots and [illegible]ation increased. A furniture [illegible]ry was established, which in ad[illegible]n to making furniture, made [illegible]t fans and peddled extensively [illegible] the country,, this in the fifties. [illegible]an from Ohio was the proprietor. [illegible] had a steam engine. (The writ[illegible]ell remembers a Mr. Howell who [illegible] wheat fans all over Fleming [illegible]y, and married a few miles from [illegible]nesburg, Miss Nancy Plummer, [illegible]r daughter of Salathiel Burris.) [illegible]wt and Wren Moore operated a [illegible]ry for making all sort of handles [illegible]ns, wagon spokes and many oth[illegible]r articles. They invented a corn [illegible]er, but I do not know whether [illegible]ot it was a success. They too, [illegible] a steam engine in their business. [illegible]e a sum of money was invested, [illegible]he hopes of the sponsors of this [illegible]n were not realized, is as so of[illegible] the case.

The First Steamboat Here

[illegible] the seventies a small steamboat [illegible] built at Farmers, on the Upper [illegible]g. It bore the name of "John [illegible]an." In passing down the river [illegible] stopped at Sherburne. An im[illegible]se crowd assembled on both sides [illegible]he river to see it pass. It re[illegible]ed several hours. This was the [illegible] steamboat that navigated this [illegible] of Licking. Since then two oth[illegible] have been launched at Farmers.

Deposition of John House, Sherburne, Ky., Oct. 21, 1921

I was born October 17, 1864. I was married to Miss Fannie Scott of Tilton, Ky., Feb. 24, 1902. We have one child, James Scott House, born July 23, 1903. My great grand father, William House, was born in Frederick county, Maryland, and came to Kentucky in 1798 when a young man. He married Miss Ann Whitecraft, whose parents preceeded William House several years in locating in Kentucky, perhaps coming about 1790. To William House and wife were born ten children, my father, James Madison House, being one of them. He married Miss Elizabeth Todd of Fleming county. To them were born six children.

SHERBURNE

John Fowler had a grant of land from Patrick Henry, governor of Virginia. The patent was written on a squirrel skin and is in possession of Mrs. Allie Robertson, of Mt. Sterling, daughter of Massie Arrasmith. My father read the patent often. Most of this was in what is now Bath county, then Fayette, and part in what is now Fleming. The line crossed Licking about one and a half miles above Sherburne at the mouth of the Lost Hurst branch, now owned by George Emmons. It included Concord church and the land owned by the Porters and recrossed Licking about the mouth of Little Flat creek. Fowler lived in Lexington. He was a sporting man and lost this land betting on horse races, except [illegible] acres which he deeded to my gra[illegible] father William House for so m[illegible] pounds of Kentucky money. There were 9,000 acres in the original survey. This deed is recorded in Lexington, dated November 20, 1800. Fowler also sold to my grandfather one acre of land on the Fleming side for a mill site. Either Fowler or my grandfather obtained the right from the state to build a dam four and a half feet high, at said point. My grandfather sold the mill site to Robert Andrews. I think it was in 1802 when these transactions occurred. Fowler was a great hunter and would come to Flat creek and stay with my great grandfather, Arthur Whitecraft. so he and my father became intimate friends. Then one hundred acres covered two mill sites or ripples in the river, so this deed gave my grandfather control of the river for some distance above Sherburne. The deed for the one acre of land is recorded in Mason county. Robert Andrews proceeded in 1807 to build a dam and a mill where Sherburne is located. The mill was of brick. Later he put in a steam engine, the first we had in the county.

Deposition of James William House
Rev. J. J. Dickey

As the country increased in population, the matter of marketing the products of the soil became a problem. Licking river offered the only outlet for the people on the south those on the north side of Licking than the Ohio. This led to the building of numerous mills along the Licking. Flour, bacon and other products could be shipped to southern markets in flatboats by Licking. Ohio and Mississippi rivers to New Orleans where they found profitable sale. There were three iron furnaces in Bath county, viz. Slate. Clear Creek and Cana . Slate furnace was built in 1790, two years before Kentucky was admitted into the union. The products of these furnaces were carried down the Licking in flat boats. Canon balls and other munitions of war made here were used by General Jackson at the famous battle of New Orleans. Boating gave employment to a considerable number of men. Many of the men would walk a part or all the way, returning.

My grandfather's brother. Joseph House, was a mil wright, and built several mills on Licking. He built side, and was more convenient to Day's Mill about 1810. He built Ringo's Mill. on Licking. about three miles above Day's mill. He also built a mill at the mouth of Slate creek on the Fleming side. These mills were built as his property. Thus he made a large contribution to the early development of this section of country. He died in 1836. A set of Laurel Hill pebble millstones on which his name is engraved, lie near my house.

John Andrews

John Andrews, son of Robert Andrews succeeded his father in the Sherburne holdings. He is thought to have opened the first store in the place. He owned land and farmed it extensively on both sides of the river. The work was done by his slaves. He owned all the property of the town perhaps built for his employes. He acquired a large tract of land by purchasing land warrants from Revolutionary soldiers. Corn would mould in transporting it to New Orleans. He parched the corn, and it could be ground into meal after it reached its

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

A PROMINENT MAN OF FLEMING COUNTY WHO LIVED BEFORE AND AFTER 1900

E. M. MONEY

The Hon. E. M. Money was born on the 5th of June, 1845, three miles south of Tilton, Fleming County, Kentucky, and was reared on a farm and employed in the occupation of farming upon the old homestead (now, 1971, belonging to W. L. Ramey), until 1879. In the meantime in September 1864, he was married to Miss America Stewart. After 1879, he left the farm and embarked in the merchantile business at Sunset in Fleming County, in which he was continually engaged for ten years. After which, in 1890, he located at Battle Run in said County. His educational advantages were limited, confined entirely as such as he could acquire in the district common schools, consisting of the rudimentary branches of a plain, common English education as was taught in the schools in that day. His father, William Money, immigrated to Kentucky from the state of Maryland in the year 1820. His mother, Mary Duley, was born and reared in Mason County, Kentucky, near the town of Lewisburg. The opportunities offered to many others in the business and other affairs of life were denied him, being left entirely upon his own resources, with neither fortune or educational advantages, but being a man of strong practical mind with a will to buffet the waves of fortune and carve his own way through the bustle and turmoil of a busy world, he was successful in so far inspiring the confidence and esteem of those that knew him best, as to be entrusted in a representative capacity with their interests in the exciting turmoil which agitated our state if not the whole country. In 1899, Mr. Money was chosen by the Democrats of his county as their standard bearer in the contest for Representative from Fleming County in the Lower House of the State Legislature. Upon his nomination, he entered upon a canvass so active and vigorous that notwithstanding the heated bitterness that characterized the campaign, he succeeded in his election and promptly responded to his name and entered upon the discharge of his duty as a faithful and vigilant representative, and amidst the fury of the contest, assassination and military despotism, he was at all times found at his post of duty and ready to respond to his call upon the roll. Fearless and brave in his defense of the rights of the common people, "no threat or intimidation moved him from the path of his duty." With the record he held, he justly deserved the high respect of those he so faithfully and fearlessly represented. Mr. Money later moved to Hillsboro, Fleming County, and was from there elected County Judge of his county. He then moved to Flemingsburg, where he lived the remainder of his life, dying at a ripe old age.

Re: Money Cenealogy

Dear Walter:

Sometime back you expressed an interest in the Money Family Tree and at that time there were some missing links but of recent date I have uncovered additional information which I am sending along to you.

I had occasion to be in Whiteville, North Carolina, July 18, 1972, and talked with Mr. Leo Fisher, Recorder of Columbus County, North Carolina. Mr. Fisher is 75 years of age and remembers that his great grandfather owned ground next to the Money property.

Several brothers of one Money family came into Southport, North Carolina, (Brunswick County) in the early 1700 hundred from England.

Residents petitioned for a new county and Columbus County was carved out of Bladen and Brunswick in the early 1800 hundred.

John Money was born February 24, 1757 in Bladen County, North Carolina. Columbus County was carved out of the southern portion of Bladen County. This John Money served in the Revolutionary war and applied for a pension at age 76. Died at age 80 in 1837. These records are available in the Archives Building in Washington, D. C.

1794? This John Money had a son, John Money, Jr., who was born in North Carolina in 1785 and migrated west into Green County, Kentucky, at age 30 and lived in this area from 1815 to 1830. John T. Money, son of John Money, Jr., was born in 1827 while residing in Kentucky with John Money, Jr. (See Indiana Historical Document). John Money, Jr, then migrated north into Hendricks County in 1833 and homesteaded several farms and adjacent ground in October of 1935. These records are available in the Hendricks County Recorder's Offices. James and Martin Shirley homesteaded in Hendricks County at about the same time. (See Exhibit).

John T. Money was six years old when he came up from Kentucky with his father; John Money died in 1855 at approximate age of 70 and is buried in Sparks Cemetery, Hendricks County.

John T. Money, our great grandfather, grew up on the homestead farm, married Malinda about 1850, and had four children:

William	-	our grandfather
John	-	deceased
Pressley	-	Father of Everett & Auburn
Oliver	-	Father of Porter Money
Mallissa	-	Married a Leach 9/1/1886 (See Historical Document)

John T. Money died as the result of a fall on Oliver's Farm December 11, 1906, at age 79; buried in Sparks Cemetery in Hendricks County.

William F. Money, born in Hendricks County around 1850 married Sarah Keeney around 1875 and had four children, Bertha, Emma, Jessie and Roy, all deceased but Emma.

I have gleaned this information from several sources and cannot vouch for the accuracy of all statements, however, I think you will find this information interesting and enjoyable.

Sincerely yours,

Don R. Money

Dear Shirleys:

I am happy that someone else in the family enjoys going back up the family tree. Here is a letter I sent to Walter SR. back in 1972. My grandfather William Franklin Money lived with my Aunt Bertha and Uncle Ott at the East Side office, 2815 E. Wash. St. Uncle Ott moved up on Fall Creek about 1926. I was 10 years old and I woned set on the porch swing with Grandpa Money and he woned tell me about his family. He never did pin point the exact location in Kentucky from whence his grandfather migrated to Hendricks County and homesteaded a quarter section of land in 1835. Grandpa did say his grandfather came from North Carolina and ~~had a brother~~ that his grandfather had a brother, James Money that explored Kentucky with Daniel Boone. (See enclosed copy, however there is a typeographical error in the spelling of money.

Grandpa did say his grandfather did not stay in Kentucky because he could not get a good land title. (See Enclosed copy).

Enclosed find Deed Record from Bladen County, North Carolina October 1782 to John Money.

I could kick myself, that I did not write down all the material that Grandpa Money told me in the porch swing when I was a small boy.

with the wild and romantic stories of the traveler. Boone had seen a little of this enchanted region, when in 1764 he had been sent on a tour of inspection to a branch of the Cumberland river by a company of land speculators. Now Finley and Boone set to work to form a new expeditionary party, but they did not succeed in recruiting the desired number until early in 1769. Boone tells the story of this expedition as follows:* "It was on the first of May, 1769, that I resigned my domestic happiness for a time and left my family and peaceful habitation on the Yadkin river, in North Carolina, to wander through the wilderness of America, in quest of the country of Kentucky, in company with John Finley, John Stewart, Joseph Holden, James Monay and William Cool. We proceeded successfully and after a long and fatiguing journey through a mountainous wilderness, in a westward direction, on the seventh day of June following, we found ourselves on Red river,† where John Finley had formerly been trading

* W. H. Bogart, in his "Daniel Boone," says of this narrative by John Filson: John Filson, who claimed to have been an early witness of the settlement of Kentucky, wrote, ostensibly from Boone's dictation, a life of the great Pioneer, but its style of language is so ornate and ambitious, as greatly to lessen its value. Evidently Filson received the leading facts from Boone and disdaining the simple words of the Pioneer, preferred the use of a diction far beyond good taste or probability. Junlay, the editor of the book, calls it, curiously, "a narrative, written in a style of the utmost simplicity, by . . . . one of the hunters, who first penetrated into the bosom of that delectable region."

with the Indians and from the top of an eminence saw with pleasure the beautiful level of Kentucky. . .* At this place we encamped and made a shelter to defend us from the inclement season and began to hunt and reconnoiter the country. We found everywhere abundance of wild beasts of all sorts, through this vast forest. The buffalo were more frequent than I have seen cattle in the settlements. . . .* In this forest . . . . we practiced hunting with great success until the 22d day of December following. This day John Stewart and I had a pleasant ramble; but fortune changed the scene in the close of it. We had passed through a great forest, on which stood myriads of trees, some gay with blossoms, others rich with fruits. . . .† In the decline of the day, near Kentucky river, as we ascended the brow of a small hill, a number of Indians rushed out of a thick canebrake and made us prisoners."

After having been plundered and carried about as captives for a while, the two hunters managed to escape, but they found their camp on the Red river deserted and plundered. "About this time," continues Boone, "my brother, Squire Boone, with another adventurer, who came to explore the country shortly after us, was wandering thro' the forest, determined to find me if possible and accidentally found our camp. . . . . Soon after this my companion in Elk Rivers." Daniel Boone was employed by Henderson in carrying out the plans for organizing this new Colony. He was assigned to the command of a company sent "to mark out a road in the best passage from the settlement, through the wilderness to Kentucky." Boone pushed this work rapidly, so that on the 1st of April, 1775 he had reached the place where the first fort in the present State of Kentucky was erected, and could begin to lay the foundation of Boonesborough.* Henderson joined Boone in the new village and opened a land office, disposing of over half a million of acres in a short time, for which only questionable titles could be given in the name of "The Proprietors of the Colony of Transylvania in America." Other settlements sprung up in the new Colony — Harrodsburgh, Boiling Spring and St. Asaph's — which formed a legislature to meet at Boonesborough in 1775.

The battles of Lexington and Concord were fought; and the shot which was soon to be "heard around the world" echoed in the woods of Kentucky. The days of Colonial Kentucky were numbered as the few inhabitants joined their kinsmen along the seaboard in throwing off the dominion of England, and Henderson was obliged to give up his scheme of establishing a separate and independent government similar to the other British Colonies. He addressed a memorial to the Continental Congress in 1775, asking that Transylvania might be added to the United Colonies, rising against English tyranny.

In going south from Kentucky we come to the upper intervales of the Ohio Valley, to Tennessee. As Rafinesque* claims that Kentucky was discovered by Colonel Wood in 1654, so Ramsey† thinks it possible, that Fernando de Soto, on the march which he made in 1539 from Florida to the Mississippi, may have passed through Tennessee. But we must leave such speculations to special investigators and will here confine ourselves to documentary evidences, although maps of the sixteenth century indicate some vague knowledge of the country between the Mississippi and the Atlantic ocean.‡ A map of de l'Isle§ shows de Soto to have come to the head waters of the Tennessee river.

The first Europeans, whom we positively know to have been in the Tennessee country, came by way of New Orleans up the Mississippi. M. de Crozat

Dear Sir:

Am Hunting information as to the early History of James Money (My Great Great Grandfather) who is supposed to Come into Kentucky with Daniel Boone around 1760(?).

He settled in Scott County and later moved to Green County where he died (1820) at the age of 90

In tracing family history I am in the dark past this Point. In Green County he fathered four Children. Redding, Perry, Kennan and James (2nd) any information I would surely appreciate

Sincerely
Stanley Money

Frankfort Ky.

Dear Director:

I Please adise if in your department there are any records of James Money who was supposed to have come 1769 into the State with Daniel Boone.

My problem is to prove the above James Money was born about 1730 in Va. and was son of one William and wife, Elizabeth Monnet, maiden name is that Son.

Can you suggest any sources?

Sincerely
E. Howard Jones.

Dear Sirs:

I am trying to gather information on my family in hopes of consolidating and creating a history for my children. I have been successful to a point but I find I am lacking both in information and on the history of the county.

My grandfather, Ernest Money, was born in Greene County in 1892. Tracing back, I know his father and grandfather were both born at Rock Lake, Kentucky which I assume is, or was, located in Greene County. Their names were William G., and John Money respectfully. My great great great grandfather was Perry Money who was born around 1800 in Kentucky. Whether or not it was Greene County, I don't know. I do know he married Gracy Skaggs on 24 May 1824 in Greene County. Of their parents I know nothing.

My great great grandmother was Elizabeth Walker. Of her family I know nothing; however, there was a Charles and Mary Walker living in Greene County in 1850 who had a daughter Elizabeth and a son Greenbery - the middle name given to my great grandfather. It may be coincidence but I strongly suspect they are the same.

Of my great grandmother's family I know as little or less. Her name was Georgeanne Smith.

She also was born in Greene County to Samuel B. and Louisa Smith. Due to the condition of the microfilm of the various census reports I have been able to locate the family only on the 1880 census. At that time both were 47 years of age and had five children living at home.

As you can see what I have is sketchy. Furthermore I don't have any information about the history of Greene County. Any information you could provide, any references or other people I could write would be greatly appreciated. Any expense incurred, within reason, I will gladly pay. This search for information began as a school project for one of my children and has turned into a labor of love. Thanking you in advance I am

Larry Montgomery

P.S. Please address any response to the address below. I am also enclosing a self addressed envelope.

Purchase of the Farm by Perry Money

Perry Money bought the interest in the farm of his brothers and sisters over a period of 29 years. Each child had a one-tenth share. Deeds have been found for the purchase of six shares belonging to Elizabeth; Margaret; Ann; Redding; Kerrenhappuck and of the heirs of James, Jr.: Milton V. and James Albert Money. In this last deed James Albert's name was stated incorrectly as Albert T. Money. (See page 117.)

Deeds made to William, Hepzibah, and to the 10th child have not been found.

James Money's Home and Cemetery

George William Money, born in 1899, told James Etsel Money the Coakley Post Office occupied the original Money cabin which was built of logs and had a stone chimney. Part of the chimney was standing in 1971.

The Post Office was established on June 30, 1890. Luther Morris was the first Postmaster. Mrs. Namie V. Coakley, wife of Dr. S. D. Coakley, became Postmistress on October 18, 1892.

The Money cabin faced Ward Road a few hundred yards from Leesferry Road. The cemetery in which James Money, Sr., and James, Jr., were buried lies on a hill a few hundred feet east of the cabin. Traditionally, the third grave in the plot was that of David Pries or Peers who sold the land to Robert Wickliffe. It is believed Rebecca Money was buried in the Perry Money cemetery which lies across the valley on another hill.

Chapter 9

Another James Money in Green County?

An 1820 Census shows either another James Money in the Brush Creek area of Green County or that our ancestor, James, had several grandchildren in his household at the time the census was taken. Also, the census listed nine slaves. No slaves were listed in any of the estate settlement papers.

The census:

Three white males under 10 yrs.
Two white males 10 to 15 yrs.
One white male 16 to 18 yrs.
Four white males 18 to 25 yrs.
One white male over 45 yrs.

Two females under 10 yrs.
One female 10 to 15 yrs.
One female 26 to 45 yrs.

Nine slaves.

This family has too many young boys and girls to have been the immediate family of James Money. His youngest son, Redding, would have been 15; Perry 21; James, Jr., more than 25, (his sons one and three and his wife, Mary Jane, 33); William more than 25 and Rebecca must have been more than 45.

Don R. Money, Attorney at Law, who died in his sleep in November, 1982, in Indianapolis, Indiana, was a descendant of a John T. Money who was born in Kentucky. He believed his ancestor may have been born in Green County. John T. Money's father homesteaded on 360 acres in Union Township, Hendricks County, Indiana. Records are located in Danville, Indiana.

"The People's Guide, Directory of Hendricks County, Indiana" by Cline and McHaffie, 1874, on file in the Genealogy Division of the Indiana State Library, Indianapolis, contains this statement:

> "J. T. Money was a farmer, who lived three and one half miles north of Pittsboro. He was born in Kentucky in 1827, settling in Hendricks County in 1833."

A reference is made to this Money by John Hadley in his "History of Hendricks County, Indiana, 1914." He said John T. Money came to Indiana from Kentucky as a small boy. He was married to a Boone County, Indiana, native. Their children were, John Pressley, Oliver, Malissa, and two who died in infancy.

John Thomas Money had four sons, one of whom was William Franklin Money, father of Ray Earl Money and grandfather of Don R. Money. This family has been trying to establish descent from John Money of Bladen County, North Carolina, who was a Revolutionary War soldier. Bladen County is about 170 miles diagonally across the state from Daniel Boone's home on the Yadkin River in northwestern North Carolina.

It is possible these two Money families are related, that John T. Money's family settled for a time near relatives in Green County, then followed Redding Money to Indiana.

This family may have owned the slaves.
